

April 2022

Fair Housing Month

Check out these free, virtual events during April 2022 to learn more about fair housing! These events will provide information that renters, homeowners, lenders, landlords, property managers, realtors, local government staff, and nonprofit staff may find helpful. Register today at loudoun.gov/fairhousing.

April
20

Fair Housing for People with Disabilities

Wednesday, April 20, 2022, 1:00 – 3:00 p.m.

Presented by the Department of Professional and Occupational Regulation

Join this session for an overview on federal and state fair housing protections for people with disabilities.

April
26

Overview of the Virginia Residential Landlord & Tenant Act and Eviction Laws in Virginia

Tuesday, April 26, 2022, 1:00 – 2:30 p.m.

Presented by Legal Services of Northern Virginia

Join this session for an overview of the Virginia Residential Landlord and Tenant Act and current eviction laws in Virginia, including changes expected in July 2022.

April
28

Updates on Federal, State, and Local Fair Housing Protections

Thursday, April 28, 2022, 1:00 – 2:30 p.m.

Presented by HOME of Virginia, Equal Rights Center, and the Loudoun County Office of Equity and Inclusion

Join this session for an overview on federal and state fair housing protections. An update about Loudoun County's Office of Equity and Inclusion will be provided as well.

loudoun.gov/fairhousing

Closed captioning will be provided for all events. If you require an accommodation for any type of disability or need language assistance to participate, call 703-771-5590/TTY-711 or email housing@loudoun.gov. Three days advance notice is requested.