

Not all lenders are created equal.

At Presidential Bank Mortgage, we are more than just a lender.

That's why we are committed to providing each client with personalized solutions based on their unique financial needs.

WHY CHOOSE PRESIDENTIAL BANK MORTGAGE?

We are a local, Federal Savings Bank

- We know your local community and partner with real estate professionals in your area.
- We have the strength to lend throughout the country.

Diverse Product Line

- We offer a wide array of affordable mortgage programs for first-time and move-up buyers including equity lines and construction loans.
- Our mortgage professionals are able to customize the best loan product to meet your financial goals.

In-House Processing

- Our experienced staff simplifies your loan experience by processing, underwriting, and closing your loan in our local offices. As a result, we are able to tailor the loan process to meet your needs, use local appraisers and close on your schedule.
